

BECOME A MEMBER OF L'AMICALE DES PHILATÉLISTES DE L'OUTAOUAIS

What are the benefits?

As a member of the APO you will have the opportunity to get a better knowledge of what is philately and to acquire new philatelic items and stamps. Becoming a member of the APO will give you the opportunity to share your knowledge and opinions with other philatelists. Enjoy it!

What is the cost?

The annual cost of a membership in the APO is $25 as an adult, $30 as a family and $10 as a student. With your APO membership, you will also become a member of the Fédération québécoise de philatélie, at no extra cost, which offers you many benefits.

When and where do we meet?

Members of the APO meet on the 2nd and 4th Mondays, starting at 6:30 pm, from September to the end of May, at the Centre communautaire Fontaine located at 120 rue Charlevoix, Gatineau (Hull sector).

During these meetings, they can exchange on various subjects, buy or sell philatelic items and use recent stamps catalogs.

Three times a year, the APO organizes an auction where members may submit lots for sale. It is a good opportunity to buy new pieces for your collection or to sell some that you no longer want to keep. You will enjoy these!
